Member - Applying for Lifetime Membership and managing retirement

Print

Views: 9683

If you're approaching retirement or considering Lifetime Membership, ACCA offers flexible options to support your transition. This section outlines eligibility, application steps, and what to do if you return to work.

Applying for Lifetime Membership

Our step-by-step video guide how to apply for lifetime membership, is here to support you through the process.

To apply for Lifetime Membership (Retired Register) through your MyACCA account, submit evidence of your retirement along with your lifetime membership application. Make sure you upload all the required documents, such as your retirement letter, P45, or proof of pension.

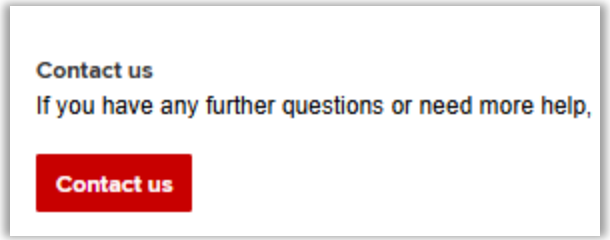

If applying between 1 January and 31 March, you'll pay a final commutation fee (equal to that year's annual subscription). If applying between 1 April and 31 December, you'll pay the commutation fee plus the annual subscription.

See fees and charges on our website.

Allow up to 5 working days for the processing of your application.
